

IN SL 26

Funeral services for Dr. Henry Oliver Mertz, 85, 4725 Kessler Boulevard, North Drive, retired urologist and professor emeritus at the Indiana University School of Medicine, will be held at 4 p.m. Monday in Washington Park North Mausoleum Chapel. Cremation will take place today.

Dr. Mertz died Friday in his home. SEP 14 1969

AN INDIANAPOLIS resident 46 years, he lived in Atlanta, Ga., the last five years and returned here recently after becoming ill. He was born at Roundhead, Ohio, and was a graduate of the Indiana University Medical School.

Dr. Mertz was both teacher and practitioner. He founded the school's Department of Urology in 1936, and headed the department from that time until he retired in 1952.

A pioneer in the development of pediatric urology, he established the state's residency training program in urology at the medical center.

Dr. Mertz was associated in private practice here with Drs. William N. Wishard Sr. and H. G. Hamer. He was a staff member of all the Indianapolis hospitals at the time of his retirement. AUG 2, 1969

THE AUTHOR of numerous articles in his field, he was certified by the American Board of Urology Inc. when it was established in 1935, and was a member of the American Association of Genito-Urinary Surgeons, American Urological Association, Societe Internationale D'Urologie, national, state and Marion County medical associations, and other professional organizations.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Ida E. Mertz; a daughter, Mrs. Fred Dixon, Atlanta, Ga.; two sons, Dr. John H. O. Mertz, Indianapolis, and Dr. James Richard Mertz, Fayetteville, N.C.; a sister, Miss Kathrine Mertz, Indianapolis, eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

John J. Sarsfield, 72, a former resident of Indianapolis and an executive of the A & P Food Stores, died yesterday in St. Anthony's Hospital at Terre Haute where he had been living since his retirement in 1954. SEP 10 1969

Mr. Sarsfield, an A & P real estate supervisor, was active in Catholic charities. He had donated funds for and had flown to South America to dedicate the Iloca Catholic Chapel in Chile. SEP 10 1969

He recently was building and financing a housing development named for President John F. Kennedy and Senator Robert F. Kennedy at Talco, Chile. P 17, C 1-2

Mr. Sarsfield was born in Worcester, Mass., and lived in Indianapolis 35 years. His last Indianapolis residence was 4360 Central Avenue.

He was member of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church at Terre Haute, and a former member of St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus in Indianapolis and the Terre Haute Elks Club and Country Club of Terre Haute. He was graduated from Sacred Heart Academy in Massachusetts.

Funeral services will be held at 9:30 a.m. Friday in Feeney Kirby Mortuary and at 10 a.m. in St. Joan of Arc Church. Entombment will be in Crown Hill Mausoleum.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Florence T. Sarsfield; a son, John J. Sarsfield of Carmel; two daughters, Mrs. Mar-

Henry F. Schricker, Jr., son of Mrs. Henry F. Schricker and the late Gov. Schricker, has been named trust officer of the American National Bank and Trust Co., South Bend. INDIANAPOLIS NEWS P 14, C 7

He and his family will move to South Bend Friday.

The younger Schrickers have been active in business, civic and cultural affairs of Indianapolis. AUG 19 1969

He served as treasurer and vice-president of the Wabash Fire and Casualty Insurance Co., and formerly was trust officer of the Irwin Bank and Trust Co., Columbus. A business graduate of Indiana University, Schricker was a member of the Indianapolis School Board. P 14, C 7

His wife, a Purdue graduate and member of Kappa Alpha Theta, has been active in establishment of the Indiana Historical Museum and in plans for Lockerbie Square. Mrs. Schricker, the former Evelyn Gullion, has been critically sick, but her condition is improved.

The Schrickers have four daughters. Christine, an I.U. graduate, is a teacher at School No. 87. Mrs. George Jack lives in Atlanta, Ga., where her husband is stationed in the Army; Kathy, a senior at Shortridge, will continue her studies there and live at the home of her aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Robbins; and Susan will enter Adams High School, South Bend.

Drive, retired urologist and professor emeritus at the Indiana University School of Medicine, will be held at 4 p.m. Monday in Washington Park North Mausoleum Chapel. Cremation will take place today.

Dr. Mertz died Friday in his home.

SEP 14 1969

AN INDIANAPOLIS resident 46 years, he lived in Atlanta, Ga., the last five years and returned here recently after becoming ill. He was born at Roundhead, Ohio, and was a graduate of the Indiana University Medical School.

Dr. Mertz was both teacher and practitioner. He founded the school's Department of Urology in 1936, and headed the department from that time until he retired in 1952.

A pioneer in the development of pediatric urology, he established the state's residency training program in urology at the medical center.

Dr. Mertz was associated in private practice here with Drs. William N. Wishard Sr. and H. G. Hamer. He was a staff member of all the Indianapolis hospitals at the time of his retirement. pic 2, p. 1, 2

INDIAN. STAD
THE AUTHOR of numerous articles in his field, he was certified by the American Board of Urology Inc. when it was established in 1935, and was a member of the American Association of Genito-Urinary Surgeons, American Urological Association, Societe Internationale D'Urologie, a national, state and Marion County medical associations, and other professional organizations.

two sons, Dr. John H. O. Mertz, Indianapolis, and Dr. James Richard Mertz, Fayetteville, N.C.; a sister, Miss Kathrine Mertz, Indianapolis, eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

John J. Sarsfield, 72, a former resident of Indianapolis and an executive of the A & P Food Stores, died yesterday in St. Anthony's Hospital at Terre Haute where he had been living since his retirement in 1954. pic 1, 2

Mr. Sarsfield, an A & P real estate supervisor, was active in Catholic charities. He had donated funds for and had flown to South America to dedicate the Iloca Catholic Chapel in Chile. pic 1, 2

SEP 10 1969

He recently was building and financing a housing development named for President John F. Kennedy and Senator Robert F. Kennedy at Talco, Chile. pic 1, 2

Mr. Sarsfield was born in Worcester, Mass., and lived in Indianapolis 35 years. His last Indianapolis residence was 4360 Central Avenue.

He was member of St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church at Terre Haute, and a former member of St. Joan of Arc Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus in Indianapolis and the Terre Haute Elks Club and Country Club of Terre Haute. He was graduated from Sacred Heart Academy in Massachusetts.

Funeral services will be held at 9:30 a.m. Friday in Feeney-Kirby Mortuary and at 10 a.m. in St. Joan of Arc Church. Entombment will be in Crown Hill Mausoleum.

Survivors include the widow, Mrs. Florence T. Sarsfield; a son, John J. Sarsfield of Carmel; two daughters, Mrs. Marshall D. Odell of Aurora, Colo., and Mrs. Allen W. Ball of Santa Cruz, Calif., and eight grandchildren.

has been named trust officer of the American National Bank and Trust Co., South Bend. pic 1, 2

He and his family will move to South Bend Friday.

The young Schrickers have been active in business, civic and cultural affairs of Indianapolis. pic 1, 2

AUG 19 1969

He served as treasurer and vice-president of the Wabash Fire and Casualty Insurance Co., and formerly was trust officer of the Irwin Bank and Trust Co., Columbus. A business graduate of Indiana University, Schricker was a member of the Indianapolis School Board. pic 1, 2

His wife, a Purdue graduate and member of Kappa Alpha Theta, has been active in establishment of the Indiana Historical Museum and in plans for Lockerbie Square. Mrs. Schricker, the former Evelyn Gullion, has been critically sick, but her condition is improved.

The Schrickers have four daughters. Christine, an I.U. graduate, is a teacher at School No. 87; Mrs. George Jack lives in Atlanta, Ga., where her husband is stationed in the Army; Kathy, a senior at Shortridge, will continue her studies there and live at the home of her aunt and uncle, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Robbins; and Susan will enter Adams High School, South Bend.